Ad Text They came for the children, but I had no small children so I didn't stand up. They came for the ranchers, but I'm not a rancher so I didn't stand up. They came for the guns, but I don't have any guns so I didn't stand up. They came after the people who speak out against tyranny, but I don't speak out so I didn't stand up. They came after me, and there was no one left to stand up. My friends, if you have never stood for anything now is the time. Look around you, how much freedom do you have? What we have now is NOT what our forefathers wanted for us.
